ADULT HEALTH NURSING

PNEUMONIA DAY OBSERVATION

DATE:12-11-2025

VENUE: SGMC HOSPITAL

TIME: 9:00 AM

World pneumonia day is observed every year on 12th November to raise awareness about pneumonia, one of the leading causes of morbidity and mortality worldwide, especially among children and older adults. This year, 2025, the world pneumonia day theme is “child survival”. The theme recognizes pneumonia as a leading cause of death among children and highlights the urgent need to protect children with good nutrition, clean air, vaccination and timely access to diagnosis and treatment. In order to create awareness on this day, the 3rd semester BSc. Nursing students of Sree Gokulam Nursing College organized an awareness program under the guidance of Mrs. Athira J S and Mr. Arun A S for the patients at the General Medicine OP of Sree Gokulam medical college hospital. The event aimed to educate the public on the causes, symptoms, prevention and management of pneumonia. The programme was hosted by Ms. Shruthi Jose with an introductory speech on pneumonia. Following this, a skit was performed by the 3rd semester BSc. Nursing students to enlighten the crowd about pneumonia and its aggravating factors and how to prevent them. There were also various presentations conducted by the students about the definition, medical and surgical nursing management, diagnostic tests, risk factors, etiology and symptoms of pneumonia. Demonstration of breathing exercise and various conditions using av aids were done. The entire programme was concluded by providing awareness and guidance to people gathered there. At the end of the session, the students cleared the doubts of the spectators and collected great feedback from them. After attaining the people’s response, we have wound up the programs conducted regarding world pneumonia day.
